BIRTHDAY SMILES FOR GILLY

Carrington Infant and Junior Schools have celebrated lollipop man Gilly Fryer's 90th birthday. The children were thrilled to sing a very loud 'Happy Birthday' to their beloved crossing patrol man and presented him with a hand made card signed by all the children.

Carrington Junior's Head Teacher Anna Majcher said: "We were lucky enough to share the experience with Gilly's manager who had such lovely words to say about Gilly. He left the assembly with gifts, cake and a very happy smile. Happy Birthday again Gilly and a very sincere thank you for all that you do for us!"

Sweet Serenades

Clients of the Flackwell Heath and Loudwater Day Centre have been entertained with a musical afternoon followed by afternoon tea. This was open to all who attend the Day Centre and was also well-attended by clients' relatives and carers. It was a huge success, made possible by a donation from the family of one client.

The musical entertainment was provided by three ladies called The Sweet Serenades with wonderfully harmonious voices, singing a variety of songs from the 1940s onwards, and culminating with everyone joining in with songs reminiscent of war-time days.

Thanks to those who worked hard in the kitchens to provide a wonderful spread of food and to Tesco who kindly supplied some of the food and sent a representative to help out.

Busy, busy new school year

We have had an amazing new start to this academic year! Our new year 3 cohort have joined the school seamlessly and very enthusiastically. It is always great to see the children arrive in September in their new uniforms – so neat and tidy. In fact this year, we introduced our new school tie with the red cherries on, and it was so popular that M&S ran out of them! The children really adore the new tie and all want to wear it so parents have ordered them right out of stock.

The weather has also been amazing. We are still using our field which is great as the children have lots of room to play. Long may it continue!

We have also relaunched our 'house' system by renaming the houses. Last term the children had the choice of choosing new names for the houses, all based on cherry varieties of course. We now have a new system and have selected house and vice captains. We are planning a number of fun events over the year.

We have welcomed back Reverend Bull and Reverend Suter who come to take assemblies at the school. Year 4 have already visited the church as part of their RE learning this year.

Our year 6 children have been given a number of new responsibilities ranging from Grounds Monitors to Office Helpers, and Sports Representatives to Assembly Monitors. They have all taken to their duties with such zeal and enthusiasm – our school will be a very efficient one!

Historical Novels – a good way to really understand history

If you want to be transported back to a previous age and feel that you are actually living alongside many of the famous people and events of history, then a historical novel will take you there. These are still novels, so the detail of the characters and their actions is fictional but fiction based on life at that time; often including events that did actually happen, and even, in some cases the actual historical people. At the end of the novel there is normally a detailed explanation of how the novel relates to the real-life people and events, together with details of source references.

The books are normally marked with 'HIS' on the spine and there are many authors publishing this genre. Some examples are: C. J. Sansom with a series of novels set in the Tudor era in the 1500s; Conn Iggulden has a series which chronicles the rise of the Mongol empire in the 1200s and another series set in Roman times, while Robert Harris also has novels set in the Roman era.

Charity brew up!

When nine year old Rufaro Sykes bravely asked new head of Juniper Hill School, Mr Tagg, if they could do something simple to support Macmillan Cancer Research, Mr Tagg encouraged her to do something BIG. With less than 2 weeks to go, Rufaro, with help from her mum, excitedly called Macmillan and ordered a Coffee Morning starter pack. Sister Evie also got involved making posters to advertise the event.

Rufaro and her team of helpers (sister Evie, Luca, Owen, Pippa and Chloe) did an amazing job welcoming everyone and serving hot drinks and loads of cake treats which collectively raised £540. Thanks to Flackwell Heath Methodist Church for lending extra mugs; Claire Dicker from Tesco's Loudwater who came to serve and wash up; Chives Catering Bourne End who provided take away cups for those people who could not stay.

Cake to celebrate Jane's memory

The Women's Thursday Fellowship Group and the WI held the annual church Macmillan Coffee Morning, in memory of Jane Routledge who had hosted the same event at the church for the past 20 years. There was an amazing spread of cakes, endless tea and coffee and live music played by Alex Routledge.

Copies of Jane's signature lemon drizzle cake recipe were laminated for all to take a copy home. It was a lovely morning and very well attended. In total £481 was raised.

Thank you to all the bakers, Flamingo Cards, Traidcraft, and to volunteers Shirley, Rufaro, Evie and Maddy for setting up.

Evening WI

At the Annual Meeting, we heard the Committee's report on the year – just to remind us how much we had seen, heard, visited and discussed. The Committee was re-elected with one addition, newcomer Vicky Marton. The Treasurer explained the flows of money in and out. The President was re-elected: Barbara Dickinson.

Business over, we had a 'blind' chocolate tasting – 5 different sorts of dark chocolate. Members had contributed to the Macmillan Coffee Morning at the Methodist Church, a cause close to the heart of Jane Routledge, an enthusiastic WI member and Macmillan supporter.

Next month is our Birthday Meeting.

Morning WI

Following the Annual Meeting, Claire the Charity Champion from Loudwater Tesco came to explain about the charities they support i.e. Cancer Research, Diabetes and the British Heart Foundation, as well as some local projects.

It was interesting to learn about the food banks and unsold food offered to local organisations, and also about the blue token scheme which awards grants to various local projects.

Next month we will be listening to a group of handbell ringers.

Sunday 11 November 2018 – The Battle's Over, A Nation's Tribute

This year November 11th is not only Remembrance Sunday but is also the centenary of the Armistice which ended the fighting in the Great War, WWI. This will be commemorated in towns and villages throughout the country by a Beacon of Light, to be lit at exactly 7pm. The Local History Group is working with other groups in the village to organise such an event in the Jubilee Gardens adjacent to the Community Centre.

The Community Centre will be open from 5pm, with light refreshments available. The stories of the 55 local men who gave their lives will be on display in the large hall. At 5.30pm there will be five short talks, bringing alive different aspects of the war as it affected the village and the 55 local men who did not return.

Outside in the Jubilee Gardens from 6.50pm Chris Bull the vicar from Christ Church, and Nick Thompson the Methodist Minister, will read out the names of the local men who died, before the Last Post is played.

The Beacon will be lit at 7pm followed by a short commemoration. The Tribute will conclude approx. 7.20pm. People are then welcome to visit the British Legion.

List of the village organisations who are supporting the event.

Chepping Wycombe Parish Council; David Watson, Buckinghamshire County & Wycombe District Councillor; Flackwell Heath Community Library; Christ Church, Flackwell Heath; Methodist Church, Flackwell Heath; Royal British Legion, Flackwell Heath; Flackwell Heath Residents' Association; Flackwell Heath Community Association; 1st Flackwell Heath Scouts Group; Women's Institute, Flackwell Heath Branch.

We would particularly like any family members of the WWI men, whose names are on the war memorial, to be aware of The Battle's Over event in the village. We would therefore be grateful if readers know of any such people they would tell them about the event. Mike Dewey on 01628 525207 will be pleased to provide more information.

Family History Research - To arrange a research session at the library please contact Gill Kyle on 01494 436314 or by email donkyle@btinternet.com. The sessions cost £2.00 for 50 minutes plus the cost of any photocopying.

REMEMBERING THE FLACKWELL HEATH FALLEN

Sue Simpson rings the bell honouring George Plumridge

Since 2014 Christ Church has been ringing the church bell on the centenary of the death of every World War One soldier listed on the Flackwell Heath War Memorial to honour their sacrifice. Just before 11am the story of each person, researched and provided by the Flackwell Heath Local History Group, is read out and at 11am the bell is rung for 2 minutes. The soldier will also be remembered at the village war memorial with any relatives invited to attend and a commemorative display is held in the community library.

On Saturday 22 September Mrs Sue Simpson LLM rang the bell to remember George Plumridge with representatives from Little Marlow Parish Council in attendance.

Girls just want to have fun!

Tuesday evenings mark a time of fun and friendship for many girls who enjoy being part of the Girls' Brigade. Flackwell Heath Methodist Church started the local company more than 25 years ago and it continues to thrive there. Jane Franklin, a local Brigade leader, explains the timeless appeal of the organisation.

The Girls' Brigade is a Christian organisation, with leaders attending a number of different local churches, but we welcome girls of all faiths, or none. The idea is to give girls the opportunity to develop skills, explore the Christian faith and hopefully, make friends for life.

An international organisation, the Girls' Brigade (GB) welcomes girls from reception class, ages 4 to 5 right through to teens. The company is divided into sections with Explorers (for school years Reception to Year 2), Juniors (school years 3 to 6), Seniors (school years 7 to 9) and Brigaders (school year 10+), with occasional activities that bring the whole company together. A number of our older girls have been part of GB since they were 4 or 5 years old and are great role models for our younger girls!

November sees us take part in the village Remembrance Parade and we have a special evening planned for Bonfire Night, with themed activities and hot-dogs. The term ends with a Christmas craft evening, followed by a walk to the Paper Mill for puddings for the older girls, and finally our Christmas party, with food, games and a visit from Father Christmas!

The girls work for badges, and each term each section of the company will be exploring a different theme through activities, games, crafts, Bible stories, cooking etc. The older girls love a good discussion too (the more heated the better!). We often have special evenings, including team games, quiz nights and film evenings, complete with popcorn. One highlight of the year is our sleepover with lots of games, crafts, food and fire-pit, complete with campfire songs and toasting marshmallows. We also enjoy evenings out.

Next year marks 125 years of GB ministry and we recently celebrated this milestone with a bumper cake and the presentation of wristbands to all our girls at our annual Awards Evening in July.

We would love to welcome new girls of all ages to join us. For more information contact Ruth Lisle on 01628 523972, or pop into the Methodist Church from 5.45pm on a Tuesday evening during term time.

Flackwell Amblers

If you would like to join us on Sunday 18 November, the Flackwell Amblers will be going for a walk at Eton. We will be meeting at the ex-Budgen's car park at 10am. This walk will last approximately 2 hours and is undertaken at your own risk. Please wear walking boots or strong shoes.

Please note, this walk may be subject to change at short notice due to prevailing weather conditions. New walkers welcome to turn up on the day.

The next date for your diary is provisionally set for Sunday 30 December 2018.

Quizzables reign supreme!

The evening of 29 September saw the large hall of the Community Centre full, with twelve tables of teams of approximately eight people, all hoping to be the winner of the annual quiz run by the Community Centre and the Residents' Association.

Craig Lewis was both quiz setter and quiz master, and made an excellent job of both roles. He has the gift of setting questions that are not so hard that you want to give up, but are challenging enough to get the whole team discussing, (or, in some cases, arguing), amongst themselves. Craig was ably assisted by his wife Linda, and some of their neighbours, who collected sheets and scored – no mean feat for twelve teams.

During the break for food, teams had a sheet of cryptic clues to unravel, the answers to which were all local villages, and also a picture round of people before they were famous.

With rounds having cryptic titles such as 'Colourful Array' or 'Home and Away' (nothing to do with television soaps!), it was hard to know where to put your joker entitling you to double points. The eventual winners were a team called The Quizzables.

Money raised from the quiz is split between the Residents' Association and the Community Association. This year £975 was split between the two organisations, to be used for community purposes and towards the upkeep of the Community Centre.

NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH NEWS

End of Summertime – summertime ended on the last Sunday in October. Don't forget to reset your various security timers controlling lights, radio, etc. to accommodate the darker evenings and longer nights.

Recent scams reported

· An e-mail from BTYahoo threatening to close the residents account unless security settings were updated. The message was NOT from BTYahoo and the link was directed to a very dubious location, nothing to do with BTYahoo.

Moral – NEVER respond to unexpected emails that land in your Inbox and NEVER click on any links in messages unless you are absolutely confident in their veracity.

· A phone call from a 'BT Engineer' claiming there was a problem with the resident's computer – the resident was NOT a BT customer which should have rung alarm bells. Although the resident gave the caller 'Remote Access' to the computer, they narrowly avoided being scammed out of a considerable sum of money.

Moral – NEVER give an unknown caller 'Remote Access' to your PC.

Cons, Scams and Cybercrime

Latest crime figures suggest that these types of crime are by far and away the major issues affecting the majority of residents in one form or another. Whether it is cold callers on the doorstep, unwanted phone calls or one of the many forms of cybercrime, we are all being subjected to these threats. However, there is some good news to report:

· The banks are now under some pressure to treat cases of financial fraud more sympathetically when it comes to reimbursement of money lost as a result of fraud. Figures suggest that £240million has been lost by individuals due to financial fraud, but only £2.4million has been reimbursed. Until now, banks have been reluctant to reimburse/compensate customers, claiming that they – the customer – were responsible for the loss of personal data that resulted in the fraud, and that the banks accepted no liability.

· The Government has introduced new rules to control cold-calling by direct marketing companies, for things like

PPI, accident claims, etc. In the past there was a requirement for customers to opt-out of such calls by registering with the Telephone Preference Service (TPS), but as many of us know from experience, this was only partly successful. Many companies found ways to bypass the TPS, and it did not extend to calls from outside the UK. Under the new rules, companies will have to ensure that the people they are planning to call have opted-in to receive such calls.

The next meeting on this topic will be held on Thursday 15 November, 7.30pm at Bourne End Community Centre.

Tea with a generous helping of charity

A delicious afternoon tea with a difference was enjoyed by friends and members of local Inner Wheel Clubs at Flackwell Heath Golf Club recently. Three charities were presented with cheques at the tea party. The Walk Centre, Kenya, The Wye Valley Zambia Project and another to Nancie Ross MBE, Trustee of Age Concern in Flackwell Heath and Loudwater.

The Day Care Centre began life in the Sarney Room in 1984. Several years of fundraising followed until the Day Centre, as we now know it, was officially opened by the HRH The Duchess of Kent in 1990. The Centre provides meals and social activities for its clients from Monday to Thursday.

Mercia Hailstone, President of Bourne End & Cookham Inner Wheel, reports: "This coming Inner Wheel year we are fundraising for Thames Valley Adventure Playground and other charities. Why not come and join us? We are a friendly group of ladies who meet regularly, not only to fund raise but enjoy friendship and social events. Many of our members come from Flackwell Heath. Inner Wheel is one of the largest women's voluntary service organisations in the World. From its origin in Manchester in 1924, there are now more than 100,000 members in 104 counties. Does that sound like you? Be part of something special!"

FHRA Brings Festive Sparkle to the Village

This year's Christmas events will take place on Saturday 24 November. Once again, FHRA is grateful for the support we receive from FHCA in putting on this event.

Our children's tea party will be held at 3pm in the Community Centre before the annual Carol Service on Jubilee Gardens. Father Christmas should be putting in an appearance for which entry will be £1 per child. The traditional Carol Service will take place on Jubilee Gardens at 5pm during which the Christmas Tree lights will be lit. Afterwards, join FHRA for a glass of mulled wine or juice, and a mince pie back in the Community Centre.

New Local Plan

Carolyn Leonard continues her tireless work in monitoring developments for us all. She writes: "The Hearing Sessions have now finished. A further session was scheduled on 26 September as Nicola Gulley MA MRTPI the Planning Inspector had not been able to hear all the evidence on Princes Risborough and the Rural Areas in particular.

"FHRA have attended a number of the sessions and Nicola has heard all those registered to speak, with great attention and patience as these verbal submissions have often been quite lengthy, hence the need for the extra sessions. The Action Points she has identified have been added to the Examination Web Pages together with any additional documentation and are available on the WDC website.

"Over the next few weeks she will be assessing the Plan on soundness following 4 points: Whether it has been positively prepared, whether it is justified, whether it is effective and whether it is consistent with National Policy.

"Nicola will make unaccompanied visits to all sites before she reports on her findings."
